7. Defendant THE CITY OF NEW YORK was and is a municipal corporation duly organized and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of New York.

8. Defendant THE CITY OF NEW YORK is and was at all times relevant herein a municipal entity created and authorized under the laws of the State of New York. It is authorized to maintain a police department, which acts as its agent in the area of law enforcement and for which it is ultimately responsible. Defendant THE CITY OF NEW YORK assumes the risks incidental to the maintenance of a police force and the employment of police officers as said risk attaches to the public consumers of the services provided by the New York City Police Department.

9. Defendants CRACCHIOLA, OTERO, CONCEPCION, and LEE are and were at all times relevant herein duly appointed and acting officers, servants, employees and agents of THE CITY OF NEW YORK and/or the New York City Police Department, a municipal agency of defendant THE CITY OF NEW YORK. Defendants CRACCHIOLA, OTERO, CONCEPCION, and LEE are and were at all times relevant herein acting under color of state law in the course and scope of their duties and functions as officers, agents, servants, and employees of defendant THE CITY OF NEW YORK, were acting for, and on behalf of, and with the power and authority vested in them by THE CITY OF NEW YORK and the New York City Police Department, and were otherwise performing and engaging in conduct incidental to the performance of their lawful functions in the course of their duties. STATEMENT OF FACTS

10. On or about May 30, 2007 in the County of Kings, plaintiff Osei Mitchell was arrested by defendants CRACCHIOLA and OTERO and charged with various felony narcotics offenses pursuant NY Penal Law Article 220.

11. The case was ultimately tried before a jury in Kings County Supreme Court – Criminal Term. Defendants CRACCHIOLA and OTERO were the governments only witnesses. At trial CRACCHIOLA (who is no stranger to USC §1983 litigation) testified that he did not find any drugs on plaintiff until he searched plaintiff back at the 72nd Precinct. OTERO -who was CRACCHIOLA'S partner in this arrest- testified that he never saw any drugs, at all. Upon information and belief OTERO knew CRACCHIOLA did not recover drugs from plaintiff and OTERO refused to commit perjury in furtherance of the conspiracy. On September 17, 2008 plaintiff was acquitted of each and every count in the indictment.

12. On or about August 2, 2007 defendant was arrested by defendants CONCEPCION and LEE and charged with assault and resisting arrest. These charges arose from plaintiff's objections to being roughed up by plaintiffs CONCEPCION and LEE. The case was promptly dismissed. However, due to the prior pending criminal case, and because of this new arrest, bail was set and an immigration detainer placed on plaintiff by immigration authorities. This detainer was not lifted until September 19, 2008; two days after plaintiff's acquittal in the earlier case.

13. As a result of the foregoing arrests plaintiff was incarcerated for more than one year.
